FULBRIGHT PROGRAMS

AMERICAN INDONESIA EXCHANGE FOUNDATION (AMINEF)

The American Indonesian Exchange Foundation (AMINEF), established in 1992, is a bi-national non-profit foundation that administers the Fulbright and other special initiative programs in Indonesia. Fulbright and related programs through AMINEF annually award more than 160 scholarships to Americans and Indonesians to study, teach, or conduct original research in a variety of disciplines. Please consult the AMINEF website (www.aminef.or.id) or periodic announcements and leaflets for specific program requirements, criteria for selection, and application deadlines. Grants are competitive, comprehensive, and generally cover tuition and fees, textbook allowance, monthly maintenance, international airfare, and health insurance.

PROGRAMS FOR INDONESIANS

General Program Description

AMINEF annually offers Fulbright scholarships to study in the United States. The primary focus of the Fulbright Program in Indonesia is to promote mutual understanding between the Republic of Indonesia and the United States of America through educational exchange and academic scholarship. Fulbright scholarships are available to Indonesian citizens with the appropriate qualifications as stipulated in the program descriptions listed below.

General Requirements for All Programs:

- leadership qualities
- a good understanding of Indonesian and international cultures
- a demonstrated commitment to the chosen field of study
- a willingness to return to Indonesia upon completion of the Fulbright program

Please note: Clear and concise written Study Objectives and Research Proposals are extremely important factors in being considered for all Fulbright Programs.

Important Required Testing Information

At the time of application, only an Institutional TOEFL (ITP) score is required. If selected, Master's and Ph.D candidates must take the official iBT TOEFL test, the Graduate Record Examination (GRE for all fields except Law and Business) or Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT for business administration, finance, accounting).

Fulbright Student Program Alumni

Fulbright student program alumni are not eligible to apply to get a second student grant. In some cases under Fulbright-DIKTI a second award may be considered by J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board (FSB).

MASTER'S DEGREE PROGRAMS

Fulbright Master's Degree Program

PROGRAMS FOR AMERICANS AND INDONESIAN HOST INSTITUTIONS

Lecturing Grants for Faculty

Grants are provided to American scholars to lecture at Indonesian universities for either one or two academic terms. In addition, lecturers normally participate in other campus activities including thesis advising, assistance with curriculum development, and establishment of educational linkages between American lecturers and the host institution. Special visa and teaching permit are required.

Research Grants for Faculty

American researchers, individually sponsored by Indonesian institutions, engage in formal academic research on approved topics. Researchers may also be asked to present occasional lectures and seminars on topics of interest to the Indonesian host institution. A special visa and research permit are required.

Senior Specialist Grants

The Fulbright Senior Specialists Program is designed to provide short-term academic opportunities (two to six weeks) for U.S. faculty and professionals to visit Indonesia for the purposes of collaboration, lecturing, conducting workshops, curriculum development, institutional planning, all depending on the host institution's interests and needs. The goals of the program are to: increase the participation of leading U.S. scholars and professionals in Fulbright academic exchanges in Indonesia, encourage new activities that go beyond the traditional Fulbright activities of lecturing and research; and promote increased connections between U.S. and non-U.S. post-secondary academic institutions in Indonesia. Indonesian Institutions interested in hosting Senior Specialist must complete a request form specifying why they need a specialist, and return it to AMINEF. Applications are available at our website. Short visit visa is required.

Research Grants for Students

Grants are given for research on approved projects which are usually integral (but not limited) to work toward a master's or doctoral degree. Students must be sponsored by an Indonesian host institution. A special visa and research permit are required.

Fulbright-Hays Pre-doctoral Student and Post-doctoral Faculty Grants

Student and faculty researchers are sponsored by local Indonesian host institutions to conduct formal research on approved topics. Grants are administered jointly by the grantee's university or home institution and the U.S. Department of Education. AMINEF provides logistical assistance to grantees while they are in-country. A special visa and research permit are required.

English Teaching Assistantship (ETA) Grants

English Teaching Assistantship (ETA) grants are provided to U.S. students holding recent Bachelor's or Master's degrees to assist local high school English teachers in Indonesia. Indonesian high schools are encouraged to apply to AMINEF to host an ETA at their schools. A special visa and teaching permit are required.
